

NEW IN BROKERR

Message a whole list on WhatsApp

Reaching out one person at a time used to eat your whole morning. Now you can message an entire shortlist on WhatsApp without losing the personal touch. Pick a Vault search, a pipeline stage or a job applicant stage, choose a template, and Brokerr lines everyone up and personalises each message for you. You stay in control and send every message from your own number.

Start from any list or stage

Message everyone in a Vault search, a pipeline stage or a job applicant stage. Choose the group and Brokerr builds your outreach list in one click.

Personalised for every contact

Add a template and Brokerr fills in each person's first name and details, so every message reads like you wrote it yourself.

Opens straight in WhatsApp

Each chat opens ready to go in WhatsApp Web or your desktop app, from your own number. You read it and press send.

Fly through your list

Press Open next and Brokerr jumps to the following contact instantly. Work through hundreds of people in one smooth run.

HOW IT WORKS

1

Open a Vault list, a pipeline stage or a job stage and choose Bulk WhatsApp.

2

Pick a message template and Brokerr personalises it for every contact.

3

Press Open next, send in WhatsApp, then move to the next person.
